

DAY 1 - MONDAY, JULY 6 2026

Room K. 011

9:00-9:30 AM - Welcome coffee

9:30-10:45 AM

Katrina Forrester (Harvard)

The State in Capitalist Societies

10:45-11:00 AM - Coffee break

11:00 AM-12:00 PM

Samuel Hayat (CNRS / CEVIPOF-Sciences Po)

The Infrastructure of Inequality: Saint-Simonian Antipolitics and the Invention of State Capitalism (1830–1870)

12:00-01:00 PM

Stefan Eich (Georgetown)

Keynes on socialisation

01:00-02:30 PM - Lunch break

02:30-03:45 PM

Eric Monnet (Paris School of Economics)

Hidden World of Banking Variety and State Intervention: The Origins and Legacies of the Savings Banks Movements in long-run global perspective

03:45-04:00 PM - Coffee break

04:00-05:00 PM

Daniela Gabor (SOAS)

Coercive Credit Regimes

05:00-06:00 PM

Leah Rose Downey (King's College London)

Governing money as a statal entity

DAY 2 - TUESDAY, JULY 7 2026

Room K. 031

9:00-9:30 AM - Welcome coffee

9:30-10:45 AM

Pierre Charbonnier (CNRS / CEE-Sciences Po)

The Climate Coalition. Green states, fossil capital, and the social logic of climate politics

10:45 -11:00 AM - Coffee break

11:00 AM-12:00 PM

Martin O'Neill (University of York)

Climate Emergency, State Power, and the Expansion of Democratic Control

12:00-01:00 PM

Chiara Cordelli (University of Chicago / Sciences Po)

What's really wrong with derisking? The normative case for democratic planning

01:00–02:30 PM - Lunch break

02:30–03:45 PM

Lukas Muller-Wunsch (University of Chicago)

The Genealogy of Capital

03:45–04:00 PM - Coffee break

04:00–05:00 PM

Inés Valdez (Johns Hopkins)

Capitalism, Imperialism, and the Paradox of Dependent Democracy

05:00–06:00 PM

Alyssa Battistoni (Barnard / Columbia)

To be confirmed